ALPINE TOUR BARGLEN

Melchsee-Frutt – Bonistock – Chringen – Hohmad – Chli Hohmad – Barglenchäle – Barglen

Route description

The Barglen is one of the highest peaks in our hiking region and a treat for experienced mountaineers. It takes around 3.5 to 4 hours to reach your destination.

The red/white marked hiking trail from Frutt-Dörfli via Bonistock via Chringen takes you comfortably to Homad. The following section of the trail via the blue/white marked alpine route around Chli Homad to Barglenchäle requires absolute surefootedness and a head for heights (SAC alpine hiking scale T4). First you tackle a tricky ridge descent, which is partly equipped with fixed ropes. A short, easy section is followed by a stepped crossing through exposed rocky sections to the Barglenchäle. From here it is not far to the Barglen summit, which after the short final ascent will reward you with a magnificent panoramic view for every bead of sweat you have shed.

Variant Pendelbahn Distelboden – Bonistock

Hiking card Nr. 411 Höhenwanderung 1 : 25'000

Tip Enjoy the tour twice, hire a mountain guide on site and treat yourself to a unique experience. Under professional guidance, you can tackle the descent via the abseil piste southwards towards Schnuer, Tannensee and back to Melchsee-Frutt.
