Melchsee-Frutt – Arviböden – Bettenalp – Heufrutt – Wolfisalp – Stöckalp

Route description

From Frutt-Dörfli, the trail leads you a short distance along the road to Obere Frutt and from there onto the hiking trail towards Arviböden. Cross the slope above the wildlife rest area to Bettenalp with ease and discover the rugged Schratten, alpine roses, gentian and anemones.

From Bettenalp, follow the hiking trail via Untere Bettenalp, Unterstafel via Ziegerboden to Heufreut and uphill to the highest point of the hike, Wolfisalp. Take a break and enjoy the marvellous view, with a bit of luck you might spot chamois, marmots or eagles.

The descent via Unterboden to Alp Schwand takes you along the challenging but well-secured mountain trail. Now it's just under 100 metres in altitude over alpine meadows to your destination of Stöckalp. This marvellous hike is sure to leave you with fond memories and perhaps your legs too...
